

Social and Personal

THE past week has been filled with beautiful balls at the various colleges in the State. At the University of Virginia two very attractive house parties were entertained by students in honor of visiting girls attending finals there, and quite a number of Richmond people were present at the three big Germans that took place.

The finals at Washington and Lee University, which also took place last week, were unusually brilliant and largely attended by guests from a distance. The final ball, which is always one of the notable events of the college year, was danced Wednesday night and the assembly guests entertained at a very beautiful ball. Miss Margaret Latady, of Birmingham, Ala., who is well known in Virginia society, opened the ball with Robert Hatcher, president of the German Club. Miss Latady wore a gown of imported lace built over white satin and embroidered in pearls. All of the girls taking part in the opening figure carried immense bouquets of Aboret Beauty roses, and the favors for the evening were very unique. Supper was served at midnight and some several hundred guests were entertained.

D. D. Hull, formerly of this city, carried a charming party of guests from Roanoke to Lexington in his motor to attend the ball at Lexington last week, visiting places of interest in the Valley of Virginia before their return to the city. The party included Mr. Hull's party included Miss Mary Stuart Cooke, Dr. Hugh Hagan, of Baltimore; Miss Rosa Rogers, of Roanoke, and Robert Moseley, also of that city. Other Richmonders present at the ball were Miss Lucy Gwathmey, Miss Mary Belle Hobson, Miss Bentley Wyner, Miss Eliza with Preston, Morrison Keith, William Jackson.

The big functions for this week in Lexington will be the balls given at the Virginia Military Institute by the cadets and officers. The V. M. I. balls are famous throughout the country, and will be very handsome affairs. Indeed, Richmond girls attending them will be Misses Dallas Lee, Lois Richardson, Conway Fleming, Katherine Hagan, Mrs. Juliet C. Keith, Misses Emily Wade and Virginia Chesterman.

To Attend Triennial Meeting. Colonel W. Gordon McCabe left the city yesterday morning for Washington, and attended the President's silver wedding at the White House last night. From Washington he goes direct to Newport, R. I., to be present at the triennial meeting of the Society of the Cincinnati. Colonel McCabe is a delegate to the meeting from the Virginia Society of the Cincinnati, of which he is president.

Other delegates from the Virginia society are Dr. George Ben Johnston, Dr. Julian M. Cabell, Francis Jenkins, of Chicago, and Joseph Long, of Interesting Announcement.

The engagement of Miss Nella Oviatt, only daughter of Dr. J. J. Mrs. C. W. Oviatt, and with Dr. C. Willis, of Virginia, was announced recently at an elaborate dinner party given by the parents of Miss Oviatt at their country place on the north shore of Lake Butte des Morts, just outside of Richmond. Dr. Willis is a native of Richmond, and a graduate of the Medical College of Virginia, and has been with the celebrated Dr. Mayo at Rochester, Minn., for the past two years. In addition to his college training here, he has done post-graduate work at Harvard and Johns Hopkins. He is a brother of Dr. Willis, who is associated with Dr. George Ben Johnston, in this city, and will shortly take up work in Richmond.

son of Mr. and Mrs. Isham Randolph, of Chicago, took place at the residence of the bride, who wore a gown of heavy white satin, trimmed in real lace and festooned with orange blossoms, entered the chapel on the arm of her brother, Dr. Charles B. Crawford, who also gave her away. Her long veil of illusion was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white sweet peas. Miss Beatrice Virginia Crawford was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids included Misses Edith Houston, Charlotte Brown, Elizabeth Lloyd, of New York; Sarah Hamilton, of Petersburg; Kathleen Bruce, of Richmond; Alice Robinson and Lettice Clarke. They wore costumes of French voile trimmed with bands of pale pink satin, and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas.

Robert Isham Randolph was the groom's best man, and the ushers were William Meade, Gaylord Clarke, Churchill Gibson, of Richmond; Arthur Arrington, Robert Conrad, S. Wellford Randolph, James Cheston, Dr. W. B. Marbury, of Norfolk; Dr. J. C. Burke and Dr. Archibald Randolph. Little Miss Lucie Lee Kinsolving, of Baltimore, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

A small reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Randolph left for a European wedding trip. Guests from a distance for the ceremony were Mr. George C. Drexel, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Houston, of Philadelphia; Admiral Casey and family, of Washington; Mrs. Gaylord Clarke, of Mobile, Ala.; Mrs. Beverley Mason, of Washington.

Ordained To-Day.
The Rev. George E. Zachary, of Fredericksburg, will be ordained priest by Bishop Gibson at Holy Trinity Church this morning at 7 o'clock. The ordination sermon will be preached by Chaplain W. W. Brander, United States Army, Fort Meyer. The presentation will be made by the Rt. Rev. Robert A. Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kent have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Frances, to Lewis Edwin Harvie, of this city. The ceremony will take place on Tuesday evening, June 27, at 7 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church at Max Meadows. The wedding is of much interest to Richmond society, Mr. Harvie being a son of Major and Mrs. John B. Harvie, of 302 South Third Street. A number of Richmond people will attend the ceremony.

MEMORIAL SERVICES OF FREDERICKSBURG ELKS

Graves of Deceased Members Decorated With Flowers—Ground Broken for New Church.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., June 19.—The Elks' lodge of this city held memorial services last evening. The Elks marched in a body to the City Cemetery where the graves of the deceased Elks were decorated with flowers. Those members are Eugene Bode, E. A. Brulle, S. S. Cadot, W. E. Wreaths were sent to decorate the graves of members who are buried elsewhere. They are Michael Long, in Philadelphia; C. W. Fullerton, Everett, Mass.; E. W. Mills, in Carolina county; C. K. Massey, in Spotsylvania county.

Ground was broken to-day for the erection of a new Episcopal chapel at Truslow's Store, in Stafford county, three miles from this city. Funds for erecting the chapel were raised by subscriptions. The services will be supplied by the rector of St. George's Church of this city, and others from time to time.

Tag Day, held here Saturday for the benefit of the Volunteer Fire Department of this city, was very successful, the sum of $150 being realized. During a storm last week a colored man, struck by lightning, was killed in Essex county, near Centre Cross. C. C. Warner, of the same county, lost a valuable horse, which was killed by lightning.

The Society for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities has paid on the debt on the old historic Rising Sun Tavern in this city, and now the owners of the property are clear of all incumbrance.

Approaching Marriage.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., June 19.—An approaching wedding of much interest is that of Miss Mary Fowles to Philip Howerton Kasey, both of this place. The marriage will be celebrated Wednesday, June 28, at noon, at Trinity Episcopal Church. The rector, Rev. H. G. Lane, will be the celebrant. The wedding march will be rendered by Mrs. Alary Hyde Green. The bride-elect is the daughter of Virginia Lee Fowles. After their honeymoon they will return to South Boston, where they will reside in the future.

BOWLING ALLEY DESTROYED.
Early Morning Fire in Pulaski Threatens Great Destruction.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pulaski, Va., June 19.—What came very near being a disastrous fire occurred here last night at 2 o'clock, when the ten-pin bowling alley of Martin was destroyed by fire. The drug store of A. H. Jordan & Co. was in imminent danger for some time, but the heroic work of the firemen and the fact that no wind was blowing prevented the fire from spreading beyond the alley, which was totally destroyed. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss is covered by insurance.

PETERSBURG ENDS ITS FISCAL YEAR

Common Council Will Wind Up Financial Matters To-Night.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS NEW HOME

George F. Ormsby to Be Tried for Lunacy—Other Petersburg News.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.
Petersburg, Va., June 19.

The Common Council will hold its final meeting of the present fiscal year to-morrow night. The object is to wind up all financial matters for the year, order the payment of all accounts for June and carry forward to the new year beginning July 1, all unexpended appropriations. It is not expected that any new business will be introduced at this meeting.

Among the appropriations to be carried forward are $15,000 for furnishing and completing the new Lee and Jackson public school buildings on Washington Street, for which the sum of $50,000 was originally appropriated, and $12,000 for the erection of necessary buildings on the grounds of the Fair Association. The city erects these buildings and retains possession of them. They are in course of erection now.

Y. M. C. A. Home.

It is probable that during the coming fall or winter, when conditions are favorable, an active and determined hurry campaign will be made here to raise funds for the building of a home for the Young Men's Christian Association. The association owns a fine site on Washington Street, has the nucleus of a library and has some thousands of capital at its command. It has also a large pledged membership, conditioned on the building of a suitable home. The income from membership will be more than sufficient to meet the current expenses of the institution. About $40,000 will be needed to build the home as planned, and to secure this the campaign will be made at such time as the board of directors may suggest.

Gala Week for Colored People.
This will be a gala week for the colored people of Petersburg. The coroner's lodge of the Knights of Pythias of Virginia will meet here in the Ebenezer Baptist Church to-morrow, and will be in session for four days. The occasion will attract a large gathering of the members of the order and their friends. There are two regiments of the Uniform Rank of the order in the State, comprising some twenty-five or thirty companies. These regiments will parade on Wednesday, and on Thursday the companies will engage in a competitive drill for prizes to be offered by the Grand Lodge. A banquet is to be given at the Grand Lodge members.

Five New Pipe Organs.
The congregation of West End Baptist Church yesterday morning decided to purchase a fine pipe organ for their church at a cost of $3,000. The church will bear the expense of making the necessary alterations to the building for the installation of the organ and will add other improvements at a cost of $500. It is announced that the entire amount for organ and improvements has been raised by subscription.

Personal Intelligence.
Miss Mary T. Patterson and her aunt, Mrs. Randolph Barkdale, left for New York this morning, whence on Wednesday they will sail on the Oceanic, of the White Star Line, for Europe. They will be abroad all summer.

Mrs. J. M. Pleasant left yesterday for Gwynedd Valley, Montgomery county, Pa., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Irvin King.

J. Hampden Slater, a well-known merchandise broker of this city, who has been confined to his home by sickness for some days, is gradually improving, and is now able to sit up.

James H. Bailey and W. W. Warren, who represented the National Protective Association in Philadelphia last week, have returned home. They speak in terms of highest praise of the hospitality and courtesies of the posts and people of Philadelphia.

The body of Mrs. Catherine C. Chamberlain reached here this afternoon from Baltimore, and was buried in St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery in Blandford.

Methodist Sunday Schools.
The monthly meeting of the Methodist Sunday School Association was held yesterday afternoon at the church in Ettrick. All of the schools but one reported, showing an aggregate register of 1,970; average attendance, 1,497; per cent. of attendance, 75, and money collected, $148.91.

To Be Tried for Lunacy.
George F. Ormsby, who has been persecuting his wife, from whom he is separated, in many efforts to secure possession of their child, is now under arrest in Washington, and is to be examined for lunacy. Though he has failed in every attempt he has made in the court to get the custody of the boy, he persisted in these efforts to an extent to bring the case before the head of persecution. He has figured in the Hustings Court and the Police Court in this city, and each time met with prompt rebuff. In the last instance the Commonwealth's Attorney warned him to leave Petersburg or he would have him brought before a commission for commitment to an asylum. Judge Mullen, Clerk Gillingham, Commonwealth's Attorney Mann and Chief of Police Ragland have been summoned to Washington to appear as witnesses against Ormsby, and the accused has had subpoenas issued for Judge Watson, Judge Barham, ex-Governor Montague and others to appear in his behalf.

Injured in Auto Accident.
H. P. Harrison and James P. Banks, of Petersburg, were painfully injured this evening while automobile driving in the vicinity of Chesterfield county. Mr. Harrison was driving his own car, in which were Mr. Banks, and several others, and in attempting to pass Bartlett Roper's car, in which were Mrs. Nat Roper, Mrs. Paul Roper and Miss Mary Roper, his car skidded, and seeing that he would strike the Roper car, Mr. Harrison threw his machine into a telephone pole. His car struck the pole, and he was thrown out, striking the Roper car, upsetting it, and the occupants of both cars were thrown on the ground. None of the women was injured, but Mr. Banks was severely bruised about the right hip, and Mr. Harrison received a deep cut on the side of his face.

TRUST METHODS KILLED BUSINESS

Testimony of New York Jobber in Suit Against American Tobacco Company.

REQUISITION FOR WOMAN

Raleigh People Fleece by Alleged Fortune Teller.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.
Petersburg, Va., June 19.

In connection with the trial of the $1,250,000 damage suit of the W. W. Kramer Tobacco Company vs. the American Tobacco Company for injury to the business of the plaintiff by the trust methods of driving out competition, here was the reading of a deposition of A. H. Hillman, tobacco jobber, of New York, and the oral testimony of J. E. Morgan, freight agent, and J. R. Hardie, express agent, at Wilson.

Hillman testified that in Greater New York up to the time the Metropolitan Tobacco Company was formed and given exclusive trade for Greater New York in American Tobacco Company goods there were 250 or more tobacco jobbers in New York, and that since the Metropolitan came into the field he and about all the others have been forced out of business. He testified that repeatedly he worked up a profitable trade in one or another independent brands of tobacco, and each time the manufacturer would be bought out by the American Tobacco Company and this trade turned by the American Tobacco Company over to the Metropolitan Company over its exclusive jobbers. He estimated that the business of the American Tobacco Company in New York has increased in the mean time from about 50 per cent. to 90 per cent.

He admitted on cross-examination, that he preferred to handle independent goods, and that he is now an independent tobacco manufacturer, and is being sued by the American Tobacco Company for an alleged infringement of a brand.

The State's prison authorities cannot understand how it could have been possible for the big log house at the Transcontinental convict camp, in Haywood county, to collapse as it did Sunday, killing four convicts and injuring six others, three so seriously that they are being sent back to the hospital of central prison here for treatment. The house was built especially as a stockade for the State convicts, and was 80x30 feet. The convicts were only sent to the Transcontinental last Monday. The news of the disaster came from J. E. Hoskins, in charge of the camp, who wired from Waterville Sunday afternoon.

Charters were issued today for three new corporations—The Franklin Club (Inc.), Louisville, for the social and literary betterment of its members, W. M. Boone and others incorporators. The Cross Motor Car Co., Eastonville, capital, $25,000, by J. E. Ellington, A. A. McKeethan and others, for a general garage and automobile business; the Hope Day Nursery (Inc.), Winston-Salem, for taking care of the children of negro mothers who work out.

Mr. Tennen, chief clerk at the prison, here at once to look into the matter, and so that everything possible was done for the convicts and precautions taken to avert further accidents. This morning H. L. Council, general counsel for the Transcontinental, wired that the camp was in good order again, that medical aid had been procured for the injured, and the three most seriously hurt were being sent back to Raleigh. As yet it is not known whether the log stockade just collapsed or whether it went down in the midst of a storm in the mountain.

The Raleigh authorities have procured from Governor Kitchin a requisition on the Governor of Maryland for Madam Hunter, the fortune teller, who worked a number of people here for considerable sums of money under promise that she would exercise her mystic powers in their behalf for the solution of family complications and the averting of personal calamities, which she represented to them were impending in one form or another. The requisition has been sent to Maryland with a view to ascertaining whether it will be honored before the expense of sending an officer to Baltimore for the fugitive is incurred. In the meantime the information has been received here that the woman has given $2,500 bond for her appearance Friday, when the matter of whether the Maryland authorities will allow her extradition is to be decided.

Madam Hunter made her biggest known haul here, through an imposition on the credulity of Mrs. Andie O. Fatman, well known dressmaker, for whom she undertook to exercise her magic in bringing back a near relative, concerning whom she was greatly disturbed. The money was obtained at different times in installments, as the charm was being worked. She obtained $200 from a negro woman, Viola Watson, whom she was to save from a terrible affliction that she represented to the credulous woman that she was about to be plagued with, through the conjuration of an enemy. A sealed box was given her as a talisman, to open which would mean death to her. This was carried to Chief of Police Stell by the woman, after she became convinced that she had been imposed upon, and the chief opened it, to find inside a blackish powder, harmless and worthless.

Charters were issued today for three new corporations—The Franklin Club (Inc.), Louisville, for the social and literary betterment of its members, W. M. Boone and others incorporators. The Cross Motor Car Co., Eastonville, capital, $25,000, by J. E. Ellington, A. A.
